

THE OLD BEE HIVE Established 1855.

An Excellent Showing of DRESS GOODS and SILKS.

Different and better.

Different, because the styles have changed in the weaves that are popular; different, because you can choose from more dress patterns of entirely exclusive styles.

Better, because the variety is larger; because the values are better, and the new ideas are given more prominence than hitherto.

In fact! This showing of New Fall Styles makes us feel that we have excelled all previous records for good taste.

P. S.—We sell Haskell's best and celebrated Silks.

The Largest in the State. Our Showing of Trunks, Grips, Suit Cases and Shopping Bags.

A new department but already a grand success showing how well people rely on the truthful statement that we sell these goods under price.

Those $1.50 Corsets for $1.19

Have proved beyond a doubt all that we have said or claimed for them. They are in every respect equal to the $3.00 corsets so freely advertised. Then, being of medium shape, they are more comfortable than the extreme styles.

The High Lace Storm Boots.

A $3 Boot for $2.50, made as nearly water-proof as it is possible to make a first-class shoe. Every size and width in stock. We pronounce these the best you've ever seen advertised or offered for sale.

THE OLD BEE HIVE.

CITY NEWS.

CITY AND VICINITY

The training school for nurses at the Panny Allen hospital will open October 1. Agency Theodore E. Hopkins has been taken to a hospital and it is feared he may have a run of typhoid fever.

Hon. Robert Roberts and Mr. Roberts arrived at New York on the Leeward, on Saturday, from their tour in Europe.

William W. Ryckewald was in court Friday and was fined $5 and costs for intoxication.

There are 29 prisoners in jail at present, some of them awaiting trial in County Court and others serving sentences.

The State Board of Pharmacy will hold an examination for candidates at the Vermont House on Wednesday, October 2, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Metcalf have issued cards for a reception at their home on Friday street next Saturday afternoon and evening.

The St. Jean Baptiste Society of St. Joseph's church is to attend the high mass at 10:30 a. m. on Sunday in a body as a pious custom annually.

The funeral of George H. Scott will be held this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Joseph's church. The interment will be made in Mount Calvary cemetery.

M. G. Bontelle paid Thursday a fine and costs amounting to $20 for furnishing intoxicating liquor. He recently committed a sentence of ten days in jail.

Orville G. Wheeler, who left Burlington a few days ago to enter the employ of the New York Life Insurance Co., has been assigned to duty at Pittsburgh.

Alfred Taylor, a stone cutter of Barre, filed a petition in bankruptcy Monday. His liabilities are $314.62 and his assets $11, all of which are claimed to be exempt.

O. H. Allard and Allen P. Allard conveyed Monday to Gustave Simons and wife property on the corner of Elmwood avenue and Allen street for a consideration of $100.

Susan B. Allen, Deborah B. Allen and Winifred Allen transferred Monday to Charles K. Johnson land and residence in Wisconsin avenue, south of Grant street for a consideration of $100.

As a result of the extra amount of news matter being handled by the Associated Press because of the death of President McKinley, the wires have been crowded for the past few days. The highest number of words received during any one night up to the present was 20,000. Tuesday night's record reached the total of 21,000 words.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by Edward M. Pinner of Springfield. His liabilities are $222 and his assets $250, of which $200 is claimed to be exempt.

An attractive looking new book of 200 pages has just been published by Orange and Blue Co. of New York. The author is Prof. F. W. Vaughn of the Vermont experimental station.

Principal Isaac Thomas of the high school has received word of the safe arrival of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas and daughter, who will spend a year in Germany.

The Chateaugay has discontinued her daily trips to Westport and return and now runs only on two days of the week.

The New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. have about 40 new subscribers who will have instruments installed soon. When these are in there will be over 700 subscribers to the exchange.

Louis Pichette and Miss Emily Provost, both of this city, were married at St. Joseph's church Monday morning at 1 o'clock by Rev. J. M. Clough. They are to reside in this city on Archibald street.

Mrs. Della Whitcomb, aged 78 years, died Sunday night. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 1:30 at the home on Broadway street and the remains were taken to Essex Junction for interment.

The party which has been at McKim's camp at Malletts Bay during the summer returned Tuesday to their homes in Montclair, N. J., and vicinity. About 60 people have been at the camp.

The King's Daughters' convention, which was being held in this city September 17-18, closed yesterday morning. Many of the stores and the banks also closed for the day. The convention was held at the Hotel Hamilton, which was the headquarters of the convention.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Eugene S. Rousseau and John A. W. Bates, which ceremony will be held at St. Joseph's church at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 24.

Miss Josephine A. Marshall, who graduated from the University of Vermont last year, has secured a position as instructor in a Philadelphia high school and has been admitted to the Vermont bar last year.

The seven months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Broder of Harrison avenue died yesterday morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home.

St. Joseph's church with burial in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Orville G. Wheeler left Friday night for New York city, where he will enter the employ of the New York Life Insurance Co. company. Later he is to be sent to some outside point as cashier of a general agency.

Through the courtesy of the Burlington Free Press, the children at the Home for Destitute Children were given an electric ride yesterday. There were about 100 children in all, and they were taken to the industrial school at Vergennes last week. The case against Durant was continued for the month.

Barley Durant was in court yesterday charged with stealing brass, rubbers, bottles, rods from the Park and other places. Several of his comrades were sent to the industrial school at Vergennes last week. The case against Durant was continued for the month.

The day work which has been in progress on the breakfast for several weeks will be completed this week and work on the contract job will be begun. The contract work extends south from the cement breakfast hall last year.

The school of instruction for grand jurors and district deputies of the 1. O. P. E. L. held at the lodge rooms in this city Tuesday afternoon. The school was given by the instruction was given by Grand Master S. B. White of Hyde Park.

George H. Scarbo, 18 years of age, died of cholera at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Maynard of 40 Archibald street. The funeral will be held from St. Joseph's church at 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

of words received during any one night up to the present was 20,000. Tuesday night's record reached the total of 21,000 words.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by Edward M. Pinner of Springfield. His liabilities are $222 and his assets $250, of which $200 is claimed to be exempt.

An attractive looking new book of 200 pages has just been published by Orange and Blue Co. of New York. The author is Prof. F. W. Vaughn of the Vermont experimental station.

Principal Isaac Thomas of the high school has received word of the safe arrival of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas and daughter, who will spend a year in Germany.

The Chateaugay has discontinued her daily trips to Westport and return and now runs only on two days of the week.

The New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. have about 40 new subscribers who will have instruments installed soon. When these are in there will be over 700 subscribers to the exchange.

Louis Pichette and Miss Emily Provost, both of this city, were married at St. Joseph's church Monday morning at 1 o'clock by Rev. J. M. Clough. They are to reside in this city on Archibald street.

Mrs. Della Whitcomb, aged 78 years, died Sunday night. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 1:30 at the home on Broadway street and the remains were taken to Essex Junction for interment.

The party which has been at McKim's camp at Malletts Bay during the summer returned Tuesday to their homes in Montclair, N. J., and vicinity. About 60 people have been at the camp.

The King's Daughters' convention, which was being held in this city September 17-18, closed yesterday morning. Many of the stores and the banks also closed for the day. The convention was held at the Hotel Hamilton, which was the headquarters of the convention.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Eugene S. Rousseau and John A. W. Bates, which ceremony will be held at St. Joseph's church at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 24.

Miss Josephine A. Marshall, who graduated from the University of Vermont last year, has secured a position as instructor in a Philadelphia high school and has been admitted to the Vermont bar last year.

The seven months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Broder of Harrison avenue died yesterday morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home.

St. Joseph's church with burial in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Orville G. Wheeler left Friday night for New York city, where he will enter the employ of the New York Life Insurance Co. company. Later he is to be sent to some outside point as cashier of a general agency.

Through the courtesy of the Burlington Free Press, the children at the Home for Destitute Children were given an electric ride yesterday. There were about 100 children in all, and they were taken to the industrial school at Vergennes last week. The case against Durant was continued for the month.

Barley Durant was in court yesterday charged with stealing brass, rubbers, bottles, rods from the Park and other places. Several of his comrades were sent to the industrial school at Vergennes last week. The case against Durant was continued for the month.

The day work which has been in progress on the breakfast for several weeks will be completed this week and work on the contract job will be begun. The contract work extends south from the cement breakfast hall last year.

The school of instruction for grand jurors and district deputies of the 1. O. P. E. L. held at the lodge rooms in this city Tuesday afternoon. The school was given by the instruction was given by Grand Master S. B. White of Hyde Park.

George H. Scarbo, 18 years of age, died of cholera at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Maynard of 40 Archibald street. The funeral will be held from St. Joseph's church at 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

THE BURLINGTON FREE PRESS: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1901.

WEDDING AT THE CATHEDRAL.

Charles H. Limoge and Mrs. Minerva Davenport Married Yesterday Morning.

Charles Henri Limoge and Mrs. Minerva Davenport were married at St. Joseph's cathedral yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. P. Gilla before a large assembly of friends and relatives.

The bride was dressed in pink crepe de chine with white chiffon and silk trimmings. Her hat was also of white chiffon and she carried a bouquet of white asters. Her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret O'Neil, was attired in white mule and the maid of honor, Miss Minnie O'Neil, wore a similar dress. Both wore rock hats and carried bouquets.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride on Peru street and last evening from 5 until 11 a reception was held at the home of the bride and groom. The reception was given by Mrs. and Mr. Limoge at 9 Peru street when a large number of friends called to extend good wishes. The next morning the bride and groom were in the city hall for the purpose of obtaining a license. The young couple left on the 10:30 train last evening for a brief honeymoon.

TROUBLE AT QUEEN CITY PARK.

D. W. C. Clapp Fined For Breach of the Peace and Makes a Statement.

The case of the State vs. D. W. C. Clapp, for breach of the peace, was reached yesterday morning in court. The case was brought by the State vs. D. W. C. Clapp, who was not in court at 9 o'clock when the case was called and bail of $200, which was held by the State, was found on the street a few minutes later and brought into court and the order for the bail was signed. The defendant was then brought into court and the order for the bail was signed.

A jury was empaneled and Mr. Clapp pleaded not guilty. The charge against him was that he had been guilty of a breach of the peace at Queen City Park and was fined $200. The case was brought by the State vs. D. W. C. Clapp, who was not in court at 9 o'clock when the case was called and bail of $200, which was held by the State, was found on the street a few minutes later and brought into court and the order for the bail was signed.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.

In probate court yesterday the will was filed in the estate of Thomas Collier of Colchester and a hearing was set for October 10 at 10 o'clock in the probate court. Colchester, Alexander Seymour was appointed administrator and E. C. Germain and E. C. Dowd appraisers.

J. E. Trull of this city in a letter from Buffalo says the crowd in front of the city hall Sunday afternoon was so large he had to stand in line over four hours waiting to get into the hall to see the remains of President McKinley.

The case of Mrs. Nellie Barrows vs. Kate Shauling was decided Thursday by Judge Hawkins. The suit was brought to recover for a debt of $100. A judgment was rendered for the defendant to recover $104 in costs.

Deputy Sheriff Ballou went Thursday to Westport, taking with him Henry Turner, who was placed in jail for making a disturbance in Colchester. Turner was committed to the insane hospital about a half hour ago but was discharged as cured last April.